

Privacy Disclosure

The privacy of your financial information is a top priority of All Saints Federal Credit Union's employees and Board of Directors. We are required by law to provide this privacy notice explaining how we collect, use and safeguard your personal financial information.

All Saints Federal Credit Union collects non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

1. Information we receive from you on forms, applications, or in connection with the application process.
2. Information about your transactions with us or others; and
3. Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency.

We may disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements. To protect your privacy, we only work with companies that agree to maintain strict confidentiality protections and limit the use of the information we provide. We do not permit these companies to sell the information we provide to them to other third parties. We may also disclose information we collect about you under other circumstances as permitted by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instruction, or protect the security of our financial records.

If you terminate your membership with All Saints Federal Credit Union, we will not share information we have collected about you, except as permitted by law. All Saints Federal Credit Union restricts access to non-public personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with Federal regulations to guard your non-public personal information.
